

CHAPTER :3

THE DELHI SULTANATE

1

What was the Delhi Sultanate?

The Delhi Sultanate was a powerful Islamic empire based in Delhi that ruled over large parts of the Indian subcontinent from 1206 to 1526 CE

2

Name the five dynasties that ruled the Delhi Sultanate in chronological order.

☐ Slave (Mamluk) Dynasty

☐ Khalji Dynasty

☐ Tughlaq Dynasty

☐ Sayyid Dynasty

☐ Lodi Dynasty

3

What was Balban's contribution to the Delhi Sultanate?

☐ King's Supremacy: He claimed to be the "shadow of God on Earth" and forced nobles to perform Sijda (bowing) and Paibos (kissing the Sultan's feet).

☐ Blood and Iron Policy: He used extreme harshness and strict punishments to crush rebellions and enemies.

☐ Crushed the Nobles: He destroyed the Chahalgani, a powerful group of 40 Turkish nobles who used to control the kings.

☐ Spy Network: He set up a strong spy system to monitor his kingdom

4

Write a short note on Alauddin Khalji.

☐ Southern Conquests: He was the first Sultan to conquer parts of South India (led by his general Malik Kafur).

☐ Standing Army: He maintained a massive permanent army and paid them in cash.

☐ Market Control: He fixed the prices of essential goods so his soldiers could afford them, and severely punished cheating shopkeepers.

	📌 Military Rules: He introduced Chehra (identity records for soldiers) and Dagh (branding horses to prevent swapping).
